Message From the Dean

Dear Families,

The fall semester is well underway. The energy on campus has been incredibly refreshing and joyful. Watching students throw a frisbee around on the quad, meeting new students and welcoming returning students back to campus, and attending club events and athletic games has put a smile on my face....under a mask, of course! And while I am certainly partial to the many opportunities outside of the classroom, I am mindful that a student's academics are paramount. We know that students can succeed at Wentworth. We see student success every day. We also see students who struggle or hit a roadblock. Help us help your student. Remind them that there are resources and services available to them to facilitate their success and facilitate their wellbeing. Encourage them to meet with their Student Success Advisor or a trusted faculty member, or reach out to one of our Student Support Specialists. Share with them our whocanhelp.wit.edu website, which aims to easily connect students to resources on campus. Together, we can help our students thrive.

Join me in wishing a healthy and safe and successful remainder of the fall semester to all of our students, faculty, and staff. Until next time....take care,

Peter Fowler

Associate Vice President for Student Affairs
