Wentworth is required by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services to verify the financial resources of students prior to issuing a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20). Please complete this form and document your ability to meet the estimated educational and personal expenses for one academic year. This estimate is based on the three-course minimum per semester to maintain full-time student status, each course consisting of three credits at $1,339 per credit. The estimate is for two semesters as summer courses are an optional added expense. Please note, on average the program will take on average one and a half years (three semesters) or longer. The amounts are listed in the chart below. You can read more about the financial documents we accept here.
