

University of Girona, Spain

General:

University of Girona, near Barcelona, is a public institution devoted to excellence in teaching and research with a strong emphasis in better connecting the sciences and the arts with society. It is deeply rooted in Catalonia and Catalan culture yet promotes openness to all traditions and cultures. The University of Girona has a strong foundation in education, having been established in 1446. Committed to international relations and globalization, the University offers programs of different levels with students and faculty from around the world.

Majors:

- Architecture and Construction Engineering
- Chemical and Agricultural Engineering
- Electrical Engineering
- Electronic and Automation Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering
- Environmental Sciences

Cost:

- Pay Wentworth Tuition
- Flight to and from Barcelona, train to Girona
- Visa fee
- Housing
- Spending money
- International health insurance

Deadlines:

- March 15 for the fall semester
- October 15 for the spring semester

Next Steps:

- Visit www.wit.edu/study-abroad for more information and to start your application
- Work with your department chair to get your courses approved